The Past That Is.

"O Memories! O Past that is!"
When Hearts have once stood face to face;
No Lethe's stream of fabled bliss—
No nepenthe—no balm—for this,
Such moments know nor time nor space,
But claim the Soul their dwelling place!

The Confederate Dead.

The following fine poem by that cultured poet-lawyer of Louisville, Isaac T. Woodson, was read at the State Historical Rooms on Wednesday last, before a meeting of its members. Mrs. R. M. Aldridge, President of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was present, and solicited the manuscript of the poem as a souvenir for that society:

As fearless as Spartans who fell in the pass,
As gallant as Bayard were they
Whose life-blood so often hath crimsoned
In battle—thee soldiers in gray.

Were they right? Were they wrong?
Their contest was long,
They suffered much; yet they were true.
We honor their memory in story and song;
Would you, were they brother to you?

They fought well while honor and life were at stake;
They died for the right and their State—
As they understood it. Can history make Their dauntless devotion less great?

They crystallized thought with blood and with tears;
Is sacrifice wholly in vain?
Lo, where the red hand of War once appeared,
The strong arm of Law will remain.

Their struggles have ended; their flag has gone down;
Defeated were they: disgraced? We say nay!
Crown victors and vanquished, these both won renown:
Wreath laurel for victors, who won in the fray;
Wreath myrtle and bay for the gray!

ISAAC THOMAS WOODSON.

Pathetic Death.

A sadly pathetic death occurred in this city on Sunday morning last. Carolue, the bright and pretty little daughter of Mr. Jno. R. Todd, was somewhat complaining on Saturday night, but went to sleep after awhile and slept until about 6 o'clock Sunday morning, when her parents were aroused by her stertorous breathing. Realizing that the little darling was seriously ill, two of our best physicians were at once summoned, and did everything medical science could suggest to relieve her but in vain.

So soon as the physicians arrived they knew there was no hope, and, by 8 o'clock this beautiful little flower was blighted and dead.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the residence on Broadway street, services being conducted by Rev. T. F. Tallifero, and the remains were laid away in our cemetery.

To the heartbroken parents of this tender little darling the deepest sympathy of many hearts is extended.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dipped with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

Frankfort Boy's Luck.

Sergeant Will A. Haycraft, Fourth Kentucky Infantry, of this city, has been appointed Lieutenant in Company L, vice Wm. Nolan, resigned. Lieutenant Haycraft is a grandson of the late John Allen Crittenden, of this city, and a nephew of Col. William L. Crittenden, a Cuban martyr; Ex-Gov. Crittenden, of Missouri; Col. Logan C. Murray, of Louisville, and of Col. D. R. Murray, of the Fourth Regiment. He's a "chip off the old block."

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure sick headache, biliousness, inactive liver and clear the complexion. Small, sugar coated, don't gripe or cause nausea. Tyler & Hemphill.

Thanks.

We have been placed under obligations to Mayor W. S. Dehoney for copies of recent St. Louis, Mo., papers. Wonder if he saw any brick streets any further west than St. Louis?

Dr. Miles' Nerve Plasters for Rheumatism. Amusements.

That jolly jingle of jollity, The Girl From Ireland, will appear here on Saturday night, at the Capital Opera House, Dec. 3d. It is a musical farce comedy of a high order of merit and comes here well recommended. The press and public uniting in lavishing praises on the company and play. The dialogue is witty and bright, the plot ingenious and full of amusing and complicated situations. The music, while being of the jingly and catchy kind, is artistic and possesses merit not usually seen in a farce comedy. The chorus is a handsome one well trained and beautifully costumed. Fun is the main object of the play and it is both fast and furious from rise to fall of curtain.

The Cedar Run, property of J. & J. M. Saffell, made a mash this week.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

Don't Forget.

That Dr. H. Goldstein, the celebrated optician, will make his regular monthly visit to this city on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Those whose vision is impaired and those needing a readjustment of their glasses should bear this in mind, and give the Doctor a call, at the Capital Hotel, upon those days.

Suffered 20 Years.

MRS. MARY LEWIS, wife of a prominent farmer, and well known by all old residents near Belmont, N. Y., writes: "For twenty-seven years I had been a constant sufferer from nervous prostration, and paid large sums of money for doctors and advertised remedies without benefit. Three years ago my condition was alarming; the least noise would startle and unnerve me. I was unable to sleep, had a number of sinking spells and slowly grew worse. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Liver Pills. At first the medicine seemed to have no effect, but after taking a few bottles I began to notice a change; I rested better at night, my appetite began to improve and I rapidly grew better, until now I am as nearly restored to health as one of my age may expect. God bless Dr. Miles' Nerve."

Clarify the Water.

A discovery, which has been in use for several years in some of the western cities, has just been called to the attention of our city authorities. It is called a "Clarifier," by which all the water flowing from a reservoir, no matter how muddy, can be clarified and made clear and pure before it runs into the mains leading to the city.

The device is so plain and simple, that the wonder is that it was never brought into use long ago.

It is simply a float, to which is attached the "clarifier," by which all the water flowing from the top of the reservoir to flow into it.

From the representations made by those who have used this machine (and they are very enthusiastic about it), it would look like it was the very thing that our water company needs to remedy our supply of liquid mud so much of the year.

The machine is an invention of Mr. Jay Noble, of St. Louis, Mo., and is manufactured by the "Jay Noble Water Clarifying Co.," of that city.

If it can, as it is positively affirmed, clarify the Mississippi river water used at St. Louis, we need not fear but that it will work here.

New Trains.

Frankfort & Cincinnati makes important changes in schedule.

Commencing Monday, Dec. 5th, the Frankfort & Cincinnati Ry. will change time of their 4:30 p. m. train, having it leave Frankfort at 3:40 p. m. and run through to Paris and return. This will give the same quick connections to Cincinnati and Eastern and Western points, and will give an afternoon train to Paris and Kentucky Central points, which has been much needed.

The only other change is that the train heretofore leaving at 1:15 p. m. will leave at 1 p. m., and carry passengers to Georgetown only.

The Enchanted Canon.

Prof. Ben F. Giltner, an old Franklin county boy, who owns and is operating the "Mesa" gold mines, near East Las Vegas, New Mexico, sends us the following account of the singular spot bearing the above title:

"Away down in the sun-kissed mountains of New Mexico some strange, weird tales have been told of the enchanted Mesa, but there is yet one untold tale of the enchanted canon. The writer, a few days ago, visited Charles Ellison, a rancher, who has recently established a home away up on the head of the Rio Los Huertos, which runs into the Rio Grande a rapid mountain torrent about six months in the year, the other remaining six months the stream only shows water in springs and pools along its bed.

"The locality of which we shall write is situated about twelve miles east of the town of Bernalillo, on the A. T. & S. F. Ry., in Bernalillo County. The bold sandstone mountains stand up against the sky ten thousand feet above the level of the sea and rise up above the Rio Grande not less than 5,000 feet.

"The greater part of the mountain is covered with Spanish scrubby oak, but the canon where the water moistens the adjacent soil, is covered with a dark forest of balsam and pine trees, with now and then, in scattered spots, of pinon cedar and mountain locust trees. Standing upon Copeland peak and looking westward towards the Jemez mountains one can see where the side canons turn out from the Los Huertos canon. These little canons are so densely overgrown with bal-sun pines that they seem fathomless to the eye, but under the shadows of this dark foliage the water leaps over the cascades into the deep, blue pools where the black trout revel in all their safety from the angler.

"Down to these clear limpid waters the cinnamon bear, mountain lions, wild cats, lynx and black-tailed deer come to slake their thirst, but no Mexican hunter dares pursue his game across the enchanted canon, because he believes the diablo would cause some evil spirit to trouble him and henceforth he would have the worst of misfortunes to pursue him.

"All along the sides of these mountains show evidences of having been cultivated by the remains of the old Aequals or Ditches that are still in evidence to-day. Old stone axes and pikes are still picked up by the hunters off of the mountain sides, which in the past, no doubt, grew maize and chili and no one knows what-not, for the sustenance of the tillers of the valley and mountain side, for the soil is rich, being constantly supplied by the detritus from the disintegrating limestones that cap the surrounding mountains.

"But, as tradition goes, the Indian dwellers tell how the earth shook and great wide fissures opened up in the sides of the mountains, through which came stifling gases that suffocated many of the mountain dwellers before they could flee out of the mountains. There is great reason to believe that there is some truth in the tradition, as the geologic conditions at present show that the Los Huertos canon on the north side has been lifted until the original horizontal stratified rocks now show a slope of about thirty degrees, while the opposite side shows fully as great a disturbance in the distant past. The fissures in the sub-granite formation confirm the fact also, and the miners, who are now delving downwards along these fissures after gold, silver copper and lead, expose the slicken sides showing the smooth corrugated walls, the effect of seismic movement and even to-day can be heard sounds like the reports of firearms, but none of them can be distinctly located, and on some days sounds like human voices echoing along the walls of the canon. The native Mexican believes this to be the voice of the diablo, or the evil spirit of the ancient inhabitants who perished in the great traditional cataclysm in the ages ago. The writer went there to investigate the causes of all these weird sounds that can be distinctly heard, and after careful observation I found the earth was being moved in its locality by some internal force now and then without any regular intervals, the earth seemed to oscillate from east to west with a slight tremor in opposite angles, and while this tremor goes on, slight crackling sound can be heard along the mountain canons, no doubt caused by the bursting of the rocks that are being displaced by the seismic movement of the earth. These reports grow louder and louder until the noise can be heard as distinctly as a shot gun that can be fired a hundred yards away, and then the loud reports decrease again until they are no more heard for some times a month or less. The sounds of human voices I account for in this way. Down near the mouth of canon Los Huertos the valley opens out until there is room for several hundred Mexicans to make a living off of the narrow strips of land along the water course by irrigation. Now during the spring of the year, when the river is flowing from the head to the mouth of the canon, the air along the course of the canon becomes humid, while the surrounding air is very dry, and, as moisture is a good conductor of sound, the body of air lying along the canon conveys the sound of the voices of the dwellers who live down in its lower end back along this moist air body up to the upper end of the canon where the confused sounds of voices is audibly heard. It would pay one to go a long way to go to Los Huertos to hear these unhuman voices and hear the reports of gun-like sound.

Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged.

What are these remedies?

Fresh air, proper food and

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. Eat nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all remedies for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages.

Price, 50c and $1.00; all druggists.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 3, 1898.

Pleasant Event.

A few days ago several friends of Dr. U. V. Williams received the following card:

"FRANKFORT, Nov. 28, 1898.

"Mr. —:

"You are expected to take 'Possum Supper, with Sweet Potatoes and Home Grown Coffee, with Dr. U. V. Williams, Tuesday evening, 6 o'clock, 29th November.

"R. S. V. P."

Accordingly those friends met at the appointed time and they were not disappointed in their expectations of a substantial and enjoyable feast and general pleasant time. The meal was served in courses as follows:

MENU.

Raw Oysters and Celery.
'Possum, Sweet Potatoes and Home Grown Coffee.
Quail and Potato Chips.
Chicken Salad. Biscuits.
Hot Rolls and Coffee.
Ice Cream and Cake.
Salted Almonds.

There was a pleasant interchange of thought and many original and first-class puns indulged as the guests sat around the hospitable board.

The Doctor has demonstrated that a good article of coffee can be raised in this climate, as the delightful coffee served the guests was raised by him in his flower garden in this city.

The following ladies and gentlemen were present to enjoy the occasion:

Mrs. M. B. Adams, Mrs. M. B. R. Day, Miss Flossie French, Miss M. Lockett Smith, Miss Laura Hall, Miss Mildred Williams and Miss Pattie Williams; Col. Tom Rodman, Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Rev. Wm. Crowe, Jr., Mr. S. J. Browning, Mr. Chas. G. Russell, Dr. U. V. Williams and Mr. J. B. Lewis.

While the guests were being served a short article upon the 'possum was read for the enjoyment of the company, which is here given:

O'POSSUM.

The O'possum belongs to the Marsupialia genus of quadrupeds. Have fifty teeth, a bristly tongue, prehensile tail, five toes on each foot, a long pointed mouth, and large ears. Peculiarly an American species, but fossil specimens are found in all parts of the world. They were the first Marsupial animal known, and are mentioned by some of the earliest writers. Their food is birds' eggs and juicy plants, and they are fond of putting and often with their long, sharp claws, in the holes of trees, and when closely pursued, feign death; hence the phrase "playing possum." Its flesh is excellent for food. Its hair is woven into garters and girdles by Indian women. Gov. Bob Taylor, in his story "The Quiltin' and the old Virginie Reel," tells better than I can how the 'possum is cooked and enjoyed:

"One evening old Uncle Ephraim came home from his labors and took his 'possum dog into the woods and soon caught a fine, large, fat 'possum. He brought him home and dressed him; and then he slipped into his master's garden and stole some fine, large, fat sweet potatoes ('master's nigger, master's livers') and he washed the potatoes and split them and piled them in the oven around the 'possum. He set the oven on the coals and put the lid on, and covered it with red hot coals, and then sat down in the corner and nodded and breathed the sweet aroma of the baking 'possum, till it was done. Then he set it out into the middle of the floor, and took the lid off and sat down by the smoking 'possum and swallowed: 'De de fine! 'De job ob bakin' 'possum I evah has done in my life, but dat 'possum's too hot to eat yit. I believe I'll jiss him down beah by 'im an' take a nap while he cools'n, an' maybe I'll dream about eat'n 'im, an' den I'll get up an' I'll git do good yit dat 'possum boaf thins 'dat-a-way.' So he lay down on the floor, and in a moment he was sleeping as none but the old time darkey could sleep, as sweetly as a babe in its mother's arms.

Old Cec was another old darkey in the neighborhood, prowlin' around. He jacked his head in at Ephraim's door, and took in the whole situation at a glance. 'De 'possum's ready to be cooked, 'I jess 'possum myself.' And he slipped in on his tiptoes and poked up the 'possum and ate him from tip to tail, and piled the bones down by sleeping Ephraim. He ate the sweet potatoes and piled the hulls down by the bones; then he reached into the oven and got his hand full of 'possum grease and rubbed it on Ephraim's lips and cheeks and chin, and then folded his tent and silently stole away. At length Ephraim awoke. 'Sho' nuf, sho' nuf, jist as I expected, I dreamt about eat'n dat 'possum, an' it wuz de sweetest dream I evah has had yit.' He looked around, but empty was the oven—'possum gone. 'Sho' nuf to de Lord,' said Ephraim, 'I nnyvah eat dat 'possum while I wuz a dreamin' about eat'n 'im.' He poked his tongue out—'Yes dat's 'possum grease sho' nuf. I s'pose I eat dat 'possum while I wuz a dreamin' about eat'n 'im, but if I did eat 'im he sets lighter on my constitution an' has less influence w' me dan any 'possum I evah has eat in my bo'n days."

At the conclusion of the meal the guests were favored with delightful music, and departed with warm expressions of their enjoyment of the occasion.

Spain Backs.

At the joint session of the Peace Commission at Paris, on Monday the Spanish Commissioners announced Spain's acceptance of the American conditions for the surrender of the Philippines under protest.

After all it turns out that Spain's bombastic assertions that she never would consent to surrender them, especially upon the terms proposed, was nothing more nor less than a game of bluff by which she hoped to pry us on the price to be paid.

It is now thought that the full text of the terms of peace will be agreed upon this week and the treaty be completed and signed within ten days from Monday last.

Exit Blanco.

Capt. Gen. Ramon Blanco, the Spanish officer in command in Cuba, stepped down and out on Sunday last. He was succeeded by Gen. Castillanos for the few days in which Spain has her grip upon the Queen of the Antilles.

Your Uncle Sam takes charge pretty soon and then—the snakes had better hunt their holes, as Blanco has done.

From the day that a young man starts out to seek his life, his health has a world to do with his success. When a young man begins to feel that his personal appearance has a deal to do with the outcome, "Personal appearance" does not mean dress alone. It does not mean exterior cleanliness alone. A young man may be clean, so far as soap and water will make him, but he is disgraced by unsightly pimples, eruptions and ulcerations on the skin. These are due to impurities in the blood. The blood becomes impure because it is improperly nourished. Instead of receiving the life-giving elements of the food, it receives the foul emanations of indigestion, biliousness and constiveness. It makes the muscles strong and active. It makes the blood rich and healthy. It makes a young man look as he should—strong of body, alert of brain and clean and whole. And he has nothing "just as good."

I had seen in its worst form," writes Anna Rees, of the Chicago Tribune, "I tried three doctors but got no relief. I thought it would set me wild. It had turned so badly. The night before I would never be cured. I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am now well."

Third Kentucky Boys.

We take the following excerpts from the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun, of Nov. 27, which relate to Frankfort boys in the Third Kentucky Infantry, now stationed near that city:

FIRST ASSISTANT SURGEON.

"A prime favorite in the hospital and in the company streets—a modest, unassuming gentleman—a capable surgeon and officer—a man whom everybody, of both humble and high estate, admires, respects and genuinely loves, is the First Assistant Surgeon, Capt. Nevil M. Garrett.

"Like Major Bell, Capt. Garrett, presented himself upon the President's first call for volunteers, and was mustered in as the Second Assistant Surgeon of the regiment. A cultivated, Christian gentleman, who never finds his duty irksome, though the sick call comes at midnight, when one's own warm tent and given are preferable to the blasts that cheer led serenades among the tents, it is not surprising that his popularity has grown with each succeeding day in the service. It's an easy thing to be a dress parade doctor with clanking bits and shining spurs and a well groomed horse, but an active, conscientious regimental surgeon suffers many denials and discomfets.

"Capt. Garrett, too, is a young man, having been graduated from the Louisville College of Medicine only two years ago. Maj. Boyd's resignation and Dr. Boyd's promotion also advanced Dr. Garrett one number and he is now First Assistant Surgeon.

"Capt. Garrett's friends predict for him a splendid future.

"Capt. Garrett is receiving the sympathy of the regiment on the death of his horse, as fine a thorough bred as an officer ever put spurs to. Pneumonia contracted on the trip from Lexington is responsible for the loss."

POINTS ABOUT THE PROVOST GUARD.

"Captain Gaines, the handsome provost marshal, has about got his office and quarters in good shape. "Capt. Gaines and his lieutenants (Milward and Quinday), will have their office on Tenth street, opposite Frederick's grocery store, where some of the officers can be found night or day. A telephone will be put in to-morrow, and every convenience will be attached.

"The guards, about 80 in number, have their quarters just opposite police barracks. The men go on duty at the same hour that the police do, and are stationed on beats.

"Capt. Gaines and his lieutenants and men are a handsome and strong looking body of men, and thoroughly understand their business.

"Chief Williams and the lieutenants and patrolmen are working in harmony with the provost guards, and both bodies of men naturally assist each other.

"Capt. Gaines says he is in love with Columbus and her people, and would not mind staying in the city six months."

City Property Sold.

Mr. Samuel Kline has purchased the property now occupied by Mrs. T. J. Brisban and Mr. W. L. Copper-smith, on St. Clair street, from Mr. Dan Meagher, sr.

The price is private, but it is understood to be a very comfortable sum.

Meeting closed at Antioch Church last Friday night with four additions. Large crowds attended during the whole time and also had good lights.

Miss Maggie Purdy, of Frankfort, visited Misses Ida and Maude Semmes last week.

Mr. Robert McDaniel called on his best girl Sunday last.

Quite a number from our community attended church at Bryant's schoolhouse Sunday evening.

Mr. Thomas Lenox, our singing master, attended church at Antioch last Wednesday night. All were glad to see him, especially the girls.

Mrs. Chas. Marshall was the guest of Mrs. John Marshall and family last Sunday.

Mr. Willie Goins and family were the guests of Mr. Warren C. Goins Sunday last.

Mr. John Weidner was out riding for his health Sunday last.

Miss Effie Goins, of Flat Creek, is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Robin Goins.

PAPA'S ONLY CHILD.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drug store of H. Shoemaker, Perry, Ill., says "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the news about it. The children may get sick when we can not get the doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.' He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Back at Headquarters.

The office fixtures, papers and documents of the officers in charge the Kentucky river improvement were returned to the headquarters in this city at the custom house, on Tuesday afternoon.

The field work is about over for the season, although the contractors are still at work on Lock No. 8.

We have the largest stock of Sterling Silver Toilet and Manicure articles in the city. Mirrors, Brushes, Manicure Sets, Toilet Sets, Wash Brooms, etc. M. A. Selbert, Jeweler.

Country Fire.

The large stock barn of Mrs. Anna G. Crutcher, seven miles from this city, on the Versailles pike, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning. Loss some $2,000, with insurance of only $500. Three horses, three hundred barrels of corn, twenty tons of hay and other crops and machinery were burned.

It is thought that tramps slept in the barn and accidentally set it on fire.

Awful Result of the Storm.

As the result of the awful storm along the Atlantic coast, on Saturday and Sunday, more than thirty vessels were sunk or wrecked and some forty or more lives were lost. Sea men state that this was one of the worst storms they ever experienced.

Earthquake Shock.

About 2:30 o'clock Saturday last a distinct shock of earthquake was felt in this city. The shock was also felt in quite a large section of the country.

Owing to the vibration occasioned by our power press, while we noticed the shock, we thought it was a little more rapid work of the presses.

Tobacco Growers Meeting.

The tobacco growers of this county met on Saturday and appointed delegates to the State Convention, which meets at Lexington on Monday next.

Resolutions were adopted and committees appointed to push the work. Speeches were made by several gentlemen.

Advice to farmers—Beware of letting the politicians obtain control of your movement.

Fine Farm Bought.

The trustees of the State Normal School for colored teachers have purchased the Dingley farm, containing some 265 acres, just across the Versailles turnpike from the school, for the use of the pupils as an experimental farm.

The present building will be enlarged and rearranged for dormitories.

Terrible Blizzard.

A terrible snow storm, which became a blizzard, raged all along the Atlantic coast and New England States on Saturday night and early Sunday morning. The snow fell to the depth of a foot or more, drifting badly. All traffic and wire connection was broken off for a time.

It is said to have been the worst November storm ever experienced in that section.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Commenced a Meeting.

The Salvation Army stationed here, with Capt. J. J. Nelson in command, commenced a meeting at the courthouse last night, and will continue the same each night for a week. These people are earnest and zealous Christians, and are doing a vast amount of good among the lowly and humble of our city.

They especially ask those who do not attend churches regularly to come out and hear the message of love which they bring.

Don't forget it—each night for a week—at the courthouse.

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and sallow and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden. What is the cause of all this? Impure blood. And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure. If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

La Fayette Monument Fund.

The La Fayette Memorial Commission has been requested by President McKinley to report to him the amount of funds contributed by the school children of the United States for the erection in Paris of a monument to La Fayette. The Commission is desirous that postmasters and parochial school officials forward the amounts held by them at the earliest possible date to Treasurer Chas. G. Daves, Washington. It is expected that Congress will appropriate for a pedestal an amount of money in duplicate of the pennies and nickels given by the children, which will approximate $50,000 to $60,000. This appropriation will be asked for in the form of a La Fayette souvenir half dollars, the silver for which will cost the government half the face value of $25,000. It is thought the coins may readily be disposed of at a premium, or one dollar each.

When you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this than all others combined. Tyler & Hemphill.

Revenue Collections.

Deputy Collector Jacob Swigert collected internal revenue taxes during November as follows: On 1,905 barrels; 84.163 9-10 tax gallons; $92,569.29 amount of tax.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the indispensable enemy of sores, burns and wounds. It never fails to cure Piles. You may rely upon it. Tyler & Hemphill.

Frankfort Boy Promoted.

Mr. R. C. McDonald, more familiarly known here as "Dick," son of Mrs. Elizabeth B. McDonald, has been given the management of a department in a large millinery establishment in Detroit, Mich. He was living in Louisville when he was tendered the place, and working in a large millinery house. We congratulate him.

The sooner a cough or cold is cured without harm to the sufferer the better. Lunging colds are dangerous. Hacking cough is a distressing. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures it. Why suffer when such a cough cure is within reach? It is pleasant to the taste. Tyler & Hemphill.

Public Speaking.

Mr. South Trimble and Capt. W. E. Thompson, candidates for the Democratic nomination for Representative, addressed the Democrats of this city at the courthouse on Monday night.

Notwithstanding the bad weather, there was a fair sized audience out. Capt. Thompson surprised the crowd and his opponent too, and made a telling speech.

These gentlemen will speak again on Monday (county court day) at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

The pace will be hot from now until the primary, Dec. 28.

His Good Luck.

In our last paper we mentioned the fact that our young friend, Mr. J. H. Dorman, Jr., had been appointed to a position on the staff of Gen. Sanger, and was in Georgia.

Our informant was mistaken as to the officer's name. By the following it will be seen how nicely our friend is situated.

The letter was not written for publication, but here goes anyhow:

HEADQUARTERS 2D, DIV.,
1ST ARMY CORPS, OFFICE
OF INSPECTOR GENERAL,
COLUMBIA, GA.,
Nov. 25, 1898.

Editor of the Frankfort Post:

As I will be in the south and Cuba the coming winter, and am desirous to keep up with my friends and local matters at home, will you please forward the ROUNDABOUT to meet this point, until otherwise notified. Having had the opportunity presented me to see the south, and become acquainted with our newly acquired territory, under auspicious conditions, I decided to accept, and will probably be gone until next spring.

I am very pleasantly associated with Major Gen. Ludlow and his staff, and of course will find the trip an agreeable one. Our Division will likely move to Mantanzas, Cuba, about the 20th of December, and the troops look forward to the experience with considerable anticipation.

The climate here in Georgia is delightfully pleasant, and the people Key-like in hospitality and kindness.

Yesterday (Thanksgiving) was a gala day at the camp, being a day for athletics and foot ball. Kentucky held up her reputation as usual, the 3d defeating the 16th Indiana.

I miss my friends in Frankfort very sorely, but of course when, in the furtherance of one's interest, it becomes necessary to break these ties, there should be no hesitation, but I frankly confess my attachment to Frankfort and her people.

With kindest regards, I remain Yours truly,

JAMES H. DORMAN, JR.

The Aftermath.

It is an old saying that "the good men do lives after them," and we have an illustration in point. Mrs. Russell W. McElery, of this city, became aware of the good the Ladies Needlework Guild had accomplished in this city before she passed away. Returning to her old home at Dayton, Ohio, she was the means of organizing a Guild there, and it was named for her "The Jeanne McMahon McElery Guild."

It held its annual meeting not long since and the reports show very gratifying results.

It is a sadly sweet memory that clusters around this work started by the sainted dead.

The Sweetest line of silver mounted Pocket Books and Umbrellas ever shown in the city at Selbert's.

Awful Wreck.

One of the most distressing shipwrecks of late years occurred on Sunday, during the terrific storm. The steamship Portland, en route from Boston to Portland, with over one hundred persons on board, was wrecked off Highland Light, Cape Cod, and went down with all on board, in sight of land, and yet in such a condition that nothing could be done to save a single soul.

Many a household is saddened by death because of the failure to keep on hand a safe and absolute certain cure for croup such as One Minute Cough Cure. See that your little ones are protected against emergency. Tyler & Hemphill.

Garments Distributed.

The Needlework Guild, of Frankfort, at its annual meeting, distributed 550 garments to the needy ones of our city, and many persons were made more comfortable for the winter. This is indeed a charitable work, for there are many worthy people sought out and looked after by them otherwise suffer.

It's a fact that you will find the best watches in gold and gold filled for ladies and gentlemen, at Selbert's.

Two Fast Florida Trains.

The Southern Railway, in connection with the Queen & Crescent Route, is nothing if not progressive. With the new winter schedule, effective December 4th, a trip to Florida and the south is made easier than ever before. The announcement of 25-hour schedule from Louisville to Jacksonville and 53 hours Louisville to Havana, Cuba, as accomplished by the Southern Railway, as follows:

The train leaving Louisville 7:40 a. m. reaches Jacksonville the next morning 8:30, making direct connections with the Florida East Coast, passing St. Augustine about 11 a. m. and arriving Miami, the most southern railroad station in the United States, about 11 p. m. The train runs every day, and in connection therewith, leaving Miami every Sunday and Wednesday, direct steamer runs to Havana, reaching there 8 p. m. next day.

In addition to this fast morning train the Southern Ry. puts on a fast night train, leaving Louisville 7:45 p. m. and arriving at Jacksonville next night between 9 and 9:30 p. m. At Jacksonville this train connects with trains for St. Augustine, Miami, Tampa and other points in south Florida. Through sleeping cars are operated from Louisville to Jacksonville, and both one way and round trip tickets are sold. At Miami connections are also made for Key West and Nassau, N. P.

All ticket agents of connecting lines sold through tickets to Florida via Southern Railway. Information desired given by Mr. A. Whelan, Passenger Agent, 216 Fourth Ave., or Mr. Wm. H. Taylor, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Louisville, Ky.

Had a Big Time.

Messrs. Geo. L. Payne, Huston Wood, Noble Lindsey and James Stone went on their annual bird hunt last week. They went to Carroll county and had a splendid time. They killed a fine lot of birds.

We clip the following from Milburn items, in the Bardwell Star, of Nov. 25:

Messrs. Payne, Wood, Lindsey and Stone, of Frankfort, are here enjoying a bird hunt. This is their second visit here and they have won a host of friends in their vicinity by their upright conduct, liberality and sociability. Come every fall, boys, the latch string will ever be found on the outside.

Pea Ridge.

Hon. South Trimble will speak at the schoolhouse December 16th.

Wheat looking well. Early sowing looks the best.

A former resident of the Ridge will move back here from Casey county this winter. He reports good land, good crops, and rents cheap in Casey. He had three hundred acres rented—one hundred acres of it bottom land—for eighty dollars a year, but it was sixteen miles from a railroad station, over a lane something like the old dirt road to Benson. Besides there was a river to cross, which could only be forded in dry weather.

Mr. Thompson, whose card appears in the ROUNDABOUT as a candidate for the Legislature, is well and favorable known to our people. As regards ability, the Ridge scribes assure the ROUNDABOUT readers that Mr. Thompson has the ability to fill the position he asks for, or any position the people of our county have the right to bestow. Mr. Thompson was a gallant soldier in the war, and was twice wounded in battle while defending his colors, losing an arm fighting for a cause that was lost, too. The people of our county can hardly do better than select Mr. Thompson to represent them, while, from present indications, they can easily do a great deal worse.

No, the ad "ten yards of silk sent free for ten cents," is not a swindle. A lady sent the ten cents a short time ago, and received ten pieces of silk thread, each one yard long. Send on your dimes.

Little Miss Etta Dennis celebrated her birthday lately in a very pretty way. Her grandma, Mrs. John Dennis, made her a very large cake, which was brought to school and shared with all her schoolmates. The cake was very good, and was greatly enjoyed by all. Everybody wishes Miss Etta may have many more happy birthdays and a kind grandma to make her a cake.

Mr. John Dennis gave a very pleasant Thanksgiving social last Thursday, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by those who had the honor of an invitation.

[DELAYED LETTER.]

Miss Lula Moore, of Benson, was the guest of Judge Moore's daughters this week.

Mrs. Sallie Graves, of Frankfort, is spending a few days at Mr. Alfred Reed's.

Mr. Blackburn Hawkins spent last Sunday with relatives near the Port.

Mrs. Perdue, of the Port, was in our vicinity Wednesday visiting her mother, Mrs. Helen Crutcher.

Miss Margaret Taylor is spending a few days at Mrs. Burton's.

Mrs. Rebecca Crockett spent several days at Mr. W. H. Hawkins' this week.

Miss ——— thinks that being a butcher, dairyman, carpenter or blacksmith does very well, but there is nothing like a Merchant," especially if he answers to the name of "Bud."

Mr. Paul Crutcher, wife and son, spent last Sunday with relatives in this vicinity.

What has become of Mr. John Redmon? He surely hasn't gone from our neighborhood to stay. Later—Oh no, he is buying Turkeys. Guess he will have a Thanksgiving dinner and invite all the girls. I wish I was a girl.

Hog killing is in full bloom—it is the latest.

Miss Katie Merchant, of Frankfort, spent last Saturday night with Miss Rosa Forbes.

Miss Susie Reed is spending the week in Frankfort.

Mrs. W. H. Hawkins is better at the present writing. Hope she will soon be up and able to get out again.

Dr. Perdue and wife, who reside near Bridgeport, spent Thursday last at Dr. Crutcher's.

Now girls, who is trying to catch Ben Utterback first? It is a rule, I believe, among young ladies, when a new fellow comes into the neighborhood, for each one to see who can make the first "mush." He is a ladies' man and quite a dude, so catch him. Now is your chance.

This is the week when the savory things flourish, and the air is full of the odor of mince pies, turkey and all the other good things that grace the Thanksgiving feast. Here is a Thanksgiving welcome to you all, dear readers, and may each of you have a hundred more. I fancy not many of you will, but it would be pleasant to feel that we were to have a hundred years' youth and hope, wouldn't it? The long winter evenings are coming and it behooves you all to be thinking of how you may best improve the flying moments.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concerned in the public who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. W. Gayle, Druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

Harveland.

The series of meetings, held at Antioch Church, by South, closed Friday night with four confessing their faith in Christ and five confessors returned that had drifted away. We hope much good has been attained by Bro. South's simple and instructive sermons, which he always delivers.

Mr. John Penn will soon move his sawmill over on the river near his home.

Miss Mattie Smith has a new beau, Mr. Oscar Clark.

The baptizing was largely attended, Thanksgiving Day, at the crossing of Stony Creek.

Miss Ida Semones was riding around Thanksgiving day with Mr. Clarence McQueen, of Leestown.

Miss Prudence Brawner, of Frankfort, has been visiting Mr. Thomas Chisum, of Bark Branch, for the last few days.

Mrs. Dr. A. M. Miles was visiting relatives at Banglad last week.

MAMMA'S ONLY CHILD.

HEADACHE cured in 10 minutes by Dr. Miles' Pain Expeller. "One cent a dose." At Druggists.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, neuralgic or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys; is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, indigestion, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. a bottle at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store.

Great Slaughter Sale

OF
Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Ladies Cloaks and Capes in Good Assortment. Also a Large Assortment of Xmas Novelties and Toys.

As my room must be vacated by JANUARY 1ST, or about that time, and in order to do so I have made up my mind to sell everything in the house if low prices will move them. Never in your life did you buy goods as cheap as you can buy them at the present time. My stock is very large and must positively be sold, and in order to get rid of them I have made the prices to suit the people and the hard times.

I will not quote any prices, but to convince you that I mean just what I say, price goods elsewhere, and then get my prices, and if you do not admit that you are saving money I will make you a present of the items referred to. This is no scheme, but simply a fact that I must give up this store-room about January 1st, and if you don't call to see me before purchasing elsewhere you will regret it as long as you live. So come and be convinced, as the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

We also have a large stock of FLOOR OILCLOTH, TABLE OILCLOTH, COMFORTS and BLANKETS to almost give away.

Honeysuckle.

Rev. Mr. Wilson conducted the regular service at North Benson Church last Sunday morning.

Died—On Thursday morning, November 24th, little Jesse, the only child of Mr. Jack Hulet. The funeral took place at Benson Church, and was conducted by Rev. H. M. Polsgrove, after which the remains were laid to rest in the church yard to await the resurrection morn. Jesse was a sweet and loving child, and we dare say will never be forgotten by the dear parents who so much miss him now.

Rest, sweet baby, under the sod, Until the coming flowers of spring, Flurly elapsd in the arms of God, Where none but angels dwell.

Misses Mattie Bryant and Nannie Moore returned home Sunday from a short visit among friends on Benson.

There was a grand play party given at the residence of Mr. Lee Moore on Thursday night of last week. Quite a number of young people were present, and enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

Miss Lula Moore, also Mr. Luke Moore, spent Saturday night at Mr. Bain Moore's, at the Stone Mansion.

Some of our neighbor girls and boys met at Mr. Bain Moore's Saturday night and amused themselves very much with songs, etc.

Miss Sallie Moore, of Bridgeport, is visiting relatives on Benson this week.

A social dancing party was given at the residence of Mr. John Dennis, in the Choateville neighborhood, on Thursday evening of last week. Some report nine girls present, some twelve, and others fifteen. We guarantee it was a good dance.

Judge Lewis Todd, of the city, has purchased the farm of Mr. Solomon Harlow, at the junction of the St. John and Stony Creek pike. His advent will cause a fluttering of hearts among the spinners and widows hereabouts, and we look for a warm contest as to who will feed his chickens. It may be his intention to raise hemp, as the farm is well adapted for it.

Owing to the persistency of aspirants there seems little hope of nominating Mr. McDonald for the Legislature, yet he is the most available to secure an appropriation for a new Capitol. He is eminent in character and consistent in his principles, and is fully equipped for the high position.

And there is Mr. Newton Harrod, of Bald Knob, who is an adroit and dangerous debater, a ready, impressive, witty talker, and socially, an admirable, pleasant and courteous gentleman. How would he do?

And there is the old man of the Call, who if he was to shy his castor into the ring, would startle the natives. He is a man of great erudition. Soldiers may conquer and statesmen may rule, but the pen is mightier than the sword.

And there is Mayor Deloney who is the peer of any mayor that ever lived excepted. Handsome in person, courteous and dignified in manner, familiar with the best society; he would give dignity and character to the sales and keep alive its traditions. If the city could afford to spare his eminent services, he would be most acceptable indeed.

And, lastly, though not leastly, there is Mr. Percy Italy, whom we do not wish to discourage. He is young, handsome and single, the very man to fill an old maid's heart with inexpressible joy. We do not hesitate to say he is our choice.

God raise up the needed man for the needed hour, be the prayer of yours,

"A PEDAGOGUES."
